And she was wondrous wise;
She got her shopping all done up With splendid enterprise;
And when the rush down street began She looked serene and bright
"I did mine long ago, You see that I was right."

IX more shopping days are left to buy that new dinner set. Make your selection today and get the best service. Don't neglect the dinner table in your search for Christmas presents. Nice china and brassware are not luxuries in the sense they were years ago; modern science has placed them within the reach of all.

Our displays of attractive Christmas gifts have never been so complete as they are now.

SENATE VOTES TOMORROW ON CURRENCY BILL

months' notes of ten and twenty dollars would be valueless in time of a panic because they could not be discounted.

"Bank of Big Banks"

With this in view, provisions were made for creating a bank of the banks, declared Senator Crawford, a bank to help the banks, but for which you assess the little banks in the capital.
The little banks are simply commended to carry wood and water for the big banks.

You say to the Vandermores and the Hepburns and the Morgans and the Reynoldses, Come in with your short term paper and get the money but you say to the Smiths and the Howes and the Joneses from the small country districts, Go somewhere else with your long time farmers' paper we cannot discount it.

Senator Shafer replied that the limitation against long term paper had been settled upon solely to assure the federal reserve banks having paper that would be liquid and quickly convertible into cash in time of stress.

Democratic Leader Underwood of the house was in conference with senate leaders today in preparation for the final stages of congressional action on the currency measure. It is thought only two days will be taken for the completion of the bill in the joint conference committee. House leaders have kept in close touch with all changes made by the senate and they expect President Wilson's signature to be attached to the measure before Christmas. The big task of organizing a federal reserve board and creating the vast system of regional banks will then begin.

Owen to Offer Bill.

With the defeat of the last of the Hitchcock amendments, which is expected tomorrow, affirmative work on the currency bill will begin at once.
The amendments comprised the essential features of the measure drafted by Senator Hitchcock and the five members of the senate banking committee. With these out of the way, Senator Owen will offer his bill, indorsed by the senate Democratic leaders as the substitute for the Glass bill, that is the house.

Following the numerous attacks on the note issue provision and the reserve requirements of the bill by those who contended the measure would open the doors to inflation, the Democratic conference tonight revised the reserve section. The revised gold reserve behind the new circulating notes was increased from 35 per cent to 40 per cent, with a tax of 1 per cent on completion of the reserve down to 35 per cent. An attempt to fix an arbitrary limit on the amount of notes to be issued failed.

Other amendments adopted providing for the use of a part of the surplus earnings of the regional banks for building up the gold reserve and for an increase in the compensation of the members of the federal reserve board from $10,000 to $12,000, as provided in the Hitchcock amendment.
The provision that all the member banks must receive the proposed new notes at par was approved.

Changes Are Referred.

The conference also decided to remodel Section 8 of the bill, providing for the entrance of state banks and trust companies into the new system, and voted in favor of a provision whereby regional banks would be required to keep a fund intact in the treasury to provide for redemption of outstanding notes. All of these changes with several other minor amendments, were referred to the Democrats of the banking committee to be framed in detail. The conference took no action on the guarantee of deposits provision of the bill.

The conference considered, but did not yet finally upon, a point involved in one of the Hitchcock amendments defeated on the floor of the senate today. This would allow regional banks to take out of member banks a specified percentage of six months commercial paper to accommodate banks in the country districts of the middle west. Under the Owen bill only paper maturing within 90 days would be eligible for discount.

The conference adjourned at 11 o'clock this morning. It will reconvene tomorrow evening.

At tonight's session Senator Borah of Idaho made a lengthy argument in support of an amendment which he proposed to require the administration to provide for the redemption of the notes of the federal reserve banks.

More Cases of Graft Unearthed in New York

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—District Attorney Whitman's investigation into political graft took a new turn today when the grand jury heard testimony concerning the letting of contracts on the Croton aqueduct, a New York City project. Anthony C. Douglas, a tunnel contractor and once mayor of Niagara Falls, who put in a bid for the construction of the so-called Hudson river siphon, and failed to get the contract was before the jury for two hours. Douglas testified, it was understood, that his bid, more than $200,000 lower than the firm which got the contract, was rejected because he refused to contribute to certain politicians. The contract was let at $1,000,000 and the bid of another firm, $50,000 less than this amount, was also rejected according to record, made before the jury.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

WE EAT TOO MUCH MEAT WHICH CLOGS KIDNEYS
WHEN THE BACK HURTS

Most folks forget that the kidneys like the lungs get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region. Avocado heads has the milder twinges, torpid liver and stone, sleeplessness and all sorts of chronic disorders.

You simply keep your kidneys active and in the moment you feel an ache in the kidney region, take a few ounces of Jad Salts from a four ounce jar. Take one before breakfast and a glass of water before lunch for a few days and you will find that the pain has disappeared. This is the only cure for the kidney and urinary troubles. It is a natural and healthy way to flush the kidneys and bring them to normal activity. It is the only

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

TRY GRANDMOTHER'S OLD FA-VORITE RECIPE OF SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR

Almost all the hair of old people turns gray. This is due to the fact that the hair follicles are weakened and the hair falls out prematurely. The only way to keep the hair dark is to use a preparation that will strengthen the hair follicles and keep the hair from falling out. This is the only way to keep the hair dark and healthy.

G. O. P. CUTS SOUTH QUOTA BY ONE-HALF

People's party representatives called for the lowering of the quota to one-half of the present number of immigrants from the southern states.
The committee in its report today has agreed to cut the quota of immigrants from the southern states by one-half.

The vote on the resolution was as follows:

Ave. Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, North Carolina, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Utah, Vermont, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming.

Nav. Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Nebraska, South Dakota, Texas, Virginia.

According to figures submitted by the subcommittee, the new plan would reduce the total number of delegates from 1083 in 1912, to 933. Under the new plan, the following states would lose delegates:

Alabama, 3; Arkansas, 3; Florida, 4; Georgia, 10; Illinois, 2; Kentucky, 1; Louisiana, 7; Mississippi, 5; New York, 4; North Carolina, 3; Pennsylvania, 1; South Carolina, 2; Tennessee, 1; Texas, 15; Virginia, 9; Porto Rico and Hawaii, 4.

Howell Led Opposition.

The southern states would have 164 delegates in all.

The District of Columbia and Alaska were provided with two delegates each by separate action, and the Philippines Porto Rico and Hawaii were also given two each, without the right to vote.

R. B. Howell of Nebraska led the fight against the resolution. He said Republican voters would not be satisfied with a reduction of the sort proposed, and pointed out the comparative strength of the delegations from several northern and southern states under it, giving also the percentage of votes cast in these states to show the Republican weakness below 50 percent. He proposed a substitute one of the plans submitted by the Republican congressional committee, which provided for four delegates at-large from each state and one delegate in addition for each 10,000 votes or major fraction thereof cast for the Republican candidate for presidential electors in 1912. This plan would reduce southern representation to 119 delegates.

Mr. Howell was opposed by Senator Borah, former Governor Hadley, holding the Louisiana proxy. Committeeman Rammel of Arkansas and McCregon of Texas, and H. L. Johnson, a District of Columbia negro, who held a proxy from the state of Georgia. On a vote, Mr. Howell's motion to substitute the congressional committee plan was beaten 40 to 3, Nebraska, South Dakota, Pennsylvania, South Dakota and Wisconsin voting in the affirmative.

The committee adjourned with no set plan for future meetings, and probably will not convene again until 1914.

SNOW WAS BADLY NEEDED IN STATE, SAYS WEATHER MAN

Irrigation Expects to Stay Water-Soaked Ground Will Allow Plenty of Water Next Summer

The recent heavy snow storm was badly needed in Colorado according to the weather bureau. The monthly snowfall bulletin, issued by F. H. Brandenburg, district forecaster, shows that until the recent storm there was hardly a normal precipitation except in 13 of the 300 gauging stations. The ground was not frozen and the moisture soaked into the soil and the water will run off in the spring gradually, assuring adequate water for irrigation until late in the summer.

At the end of November, the only places at which there was more than a foot of snow were:

SOUTH PLATTE BASIN. Buffalo, 26 inches.
Buckhorn, 15 inches.
ARKANSAS BASIN.

Mail Carrier Found Dead in Snow Drift

George Rushee, formerly well known in Woodland Park, where he conducted a livery stable, lost his life in the recent snow storm, while attempting to carry mail from South Platte to North Platte. His body was found last Thursday about a half mile from North Platte, according to word received here yesterday. He is survived by a wife and son, the latter living in Denver. Rushee left South Platte December 11 with mail for North Platte. He did not return, and his wife believed that he had reached his destination. One of his horses, owned by South Platte and a young one, were found and taken to the station, but the mail carrier and one of his horses had not been seen since.

SCHOOL KIDDIES ROUT HIGH COST OF LIVING

Little Folks Have Been Busy for Days Planning and Making Useful Gifts for Christmas

By T. W. ROSS.

While My Lady of the Bundles, and the Tired Business Man are dodging around corners and sneaking into stores in an unsuccessful effort to escape their despised, yet ever present, companion, High Cost of Living, and learning that it is almost too late to shop early, their small sons and daughters are finding a way to combat the common enemy.

If on Christmas morning father finds in his sock a match scratcher or a blotting pad, decorated with the scarlet and green of Yuletide, and finds a childish note telling him that his gift was made by little Margaret or little Johnny, he will understand the secrecy that the little folks have maintained about their work at school for the last two weeks.

For the schools are helping the youngsters to solve the gift problem this year and these last two days before the holiday vacation will be busy ones for the children. Tomorrow the schools will hold their Christmas entertainments and there will be trees, fireplaces, Santa Clauses, Christmas carols, and the interchange of "Merry Christmas."

Eagerly Awaiting Christmas.

In many of the grades below the High school the children have decorated the blackboards with colored chalk designs of special significance.

SPRINGFIELD DREN WARNED AGAINST CHRISTMAS FIRES

Parents Are Also Urged to Guard Against Accidents During Holiday Period

With the time for lighting the annual Christmas tree but a short distance away, the parents and church organizations of Colorado Springs are making plans to prevent any accidents from fire which so often mar the holiday festivities where children and candle-lighted evergreen trees meet. Local insurance agents have received copies of the following proclamation issued by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners and Fire Marshals:

Every year in America many children are burned to death by fire from Christmas candles.
Do not decorate your Christmas tree with paper, cotton or any other inflammable material. Use metallic tinsel and other non-inflammable decorations only and set the tree securely, so that the children in reaching for things cannot tip it over.
Do not use cotton to represent snow. If you must have snow, use asbestos fiber.
Do not permit children to light or relight the candles while parents are not present. They frequently set fire to their clothing instead. The tree itself will burn when needles have become dry.
Do not leave matches within reach of children at holiday time. Candles are meant to be lighted and if the children can get matches they will experiment with them. They imitate their elders.
It's a big event for the little folks, the biggest of the year, and the teachers are cooperating with them in trying to make their Christmas happy and pleasant, and to deal a hard jolt to the red ogre High Cost of Living.

SYMBOLISM ONE OF THE TRICKS OF STAGECRAFT

Skillful Suggestions Are Often Employed, Even in Modern Plays

It is quite possible for an expert stage manager to apply symbolism even to a modern play, and part of the success of A. E. Thomas' drama of New York life, "The Rainbow," may be due to the skillful way in which Henry Miller has suggested and emphasized some of the young dramatist's scenes by his skillful stage management.

There is symbolism in the second act of "The Rainbow" that seems at first glance a piece of stage management. When Cynthia leaves her father's house at the climax of the play, one of her hats is left on the piano. Her maid has packed her belongings, so anybody who notices the small summer hat lying on the pile of music might wonder why it had not been noticed and sent to the room where the little girl's maid was packing.

The neglect of the little hat, however, is a deliberate oversight. It is a symbolic suggestion that the influence flowing from the girl's personality remains in Sumner's home after his daughter has gone out of his life.

Another point in symbolic stage management that ultimately is grasped by most audiences puzzles everyone at first. When Sumner's friends come up to his apartment in the first act, one of them keeps his hat on while he and the two women in his mother party expostulate with Sumner. It is not unusual to hear somebody in the audience whisper:

"Why doesn't that take off his hat?"

A moment later his daughter, whose presence in Sumner's home is not known to the visitors, runs into the room suddenly and stops short with a little exclamation of surprise. Instantly the visitor removes his hat, a mark of respect he failed to show to his feminine companions or to Cynthia's father. It is a clever stage trick that conveys the psychological subtleties.

One bit of symbolism that Henry Miller introduces in "The Rainbow" goes unnoticed, although its effect is presumably felt by the audience. When the curtain falls at the climax of the first act, Sumner is standing in the center of the stage with his profile to the audience, facing the door of his daughter's room. She has just come into his life and the luminousness of the scene is suggested by the vivid sunlight that floods the stage.

At the end of the second act, just before Cynthia leaves the house to go to her mother, Sumner turns from the mantelpiece against which he had been leaning and walks to the center of the stage, with his profile to the audience and with his eyes fixed on the room from which the girl is about to come to tell him goodbye. It is the same posture the actor assumed in the first scene. But now the atmosphere is entirely different. The room gradually grows darker as the scene advances and rumbling thunder that suggests an approaching storm takes the place of the sunshine that had filled the room when his little girl first visited his lonely bachelor home.

MISS RUTH CHATTERTON
Who Takes the Part of Cynthia in "The Rainbow."

Dangers of a Cold.
Do you know that of all the minor ailments colds are by far the most dangerous? It is not the colds themselves that you need to fear, but the serious diseases that they so often lead to. For that reason every cold should be gotten rid of with the least possible delay. To accomplish this you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy of great help to you. It loosens a cold, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration and enables the system to throw off the cold. For sale by all dealers. Adv.

HOPE TO FIND OIL IN EL PASO COUNTY

Attorney Henry A. Lindson of Denver, yesterday filed leases on a number of properties around Falcon, Colo., east of this city. In the office of the county clerk. The action is thought to mean that another effort will be made to find oil in El Paso county. Property owned by R. E. Webster, Louis and Elizabeth Nott, J. W. Hupp, Edward Garrett and E. B. Lorimer has been leased for the Falcon-Worcester Oil company.

COUGHS THAT PREVENT SLEEP

These coughs are annoying and if they hang on, can lay one down physically and lower the vital resistance to disease. Mr. Ben Ferguson, 219 Pine St., Green Bay, Wis., writes: "I was greatly troubled with a bad cough that kept me awake nights. You small bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound completely cured me." This medicine is equally good for colds, whooping cough, measles, croup, and for the chronic coughs of elderly people. It is soothing and healing and stops tickling-throat. Robinson Drug Co.

What the Press Agents Say

THE PRINCE OF TONIGHT

Eva Carey, the young prima donna, who has been delighting theatergoers in the role of "Virginia Stuart" in the musical spectacle, "The Prince of Tonight," coming to the Opera house tonight, is surprised that she ever went on the stage.

Ever complaining her schooling, Miss Carey went on to take up vocal training during the summer she visited many friends in New York city and to please her several professionals. At that time one of the "Merry Widow" companies was in rehearsal. Miss Carey was invited to attend, where she, not the musical director, whom she heard her singing offered her a position as a show girl, which she accepted and in the past three or four years she has been making a decided success.

OFFICIAL CALL ISSUED FOR GOOD ROADS MEETING

Fourth Annual Convention of State

Organization to Be Held Here

January 15 and 16

The official call for the fourth annual convention of the Colorado Good Roads Association is to be held in Colorado Springs January 15 and 16, 1914, as issued yesterday from the headquarters of the association. The call states that the general headquarters for the convention will be at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce and that communications regarding the convention should be addressed to the secretary, room 312, Chamber of Commerce Building, Denver.

According to the announcement sent yesterday, the railroads have granted special rates for the days of the convention, with one fare on a round-trip ticket for the round trip. Tickets will be good returning until January 19.

The official call reads in part as follows: Whereas the construction of good roads in the state of Colorado is a matter of great moment to all citizens and

Whereas the State Highway commission and the county commissioners of the several counties of the state have mapped out and are endeavoring to construct a state wide system of good roads and

Whereas the state road fund will soon be exhausted and the work of the State Highway commission will be greatly crippled unless appropriate legislation is secured very soon for providing permanent sources of revenue for the road fund and

Whereas the members of the Colorado Good Roads association are most vitally interested in devising ways and means to enable the State Highway commission to continue its work efficiently now Therefore, this official call has been issued by the authority of the executive committee of the Colorado Good Roads association for the fourth annual convention of the association to meet in Colorado Springs, January 15-16, 1914, for the purpose of discussing and taking action in regard to the following subjects: Provision of additional funds for the state road fund by a state bond issue or direct levy; federal aid for highways in public land states; improvements in methods of construction and maintenance of roads and changes in the organization of the association.

GUARDING AGAINST CROUP
The best safeguard against croup is a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in the house. F. R. Glen, Middleton, Wis., writes: "My children are very susceptible to croup, easily catch cold. I give them Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and in every instance they get prompt relief and are soon cured. We keep it at home and prevent croup. Use it also for coughs, colds, hoarseness, tickling throat, bronchial and grippe coughs. It contains no opiates. Refuse substitutes. Robinson Drug Co. Adv."

Many Hear Sermon by Rev. R. P. Carson

The subject of Evangelist Carson at the south side union meetings last night was Jesus Knocking at the Door. He chose as his text Rev. 3:20. Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If any man hear my voice and open the door I will come in to him and will sup with him and he with me.

Scientifically and systematically said Mr. Carson, God planned and executed the plan of creation. Each previous day fitted into the present and the present into the future, the whole of his creative work culminating in man, his masterpiece. Man is God's masterpiece not from the standpoint of physical construction, longevity, etc., but in that he was given powers not delegated to anything else which God made. He was created in God's image and became in turn an imitator of God in creative action. And every man is seeking to produce a masterpiece. The essential thing which makes man different from other things of God's creation is that he is imbued with an ego or a personality or the will of his own soul.

The plan, God seeks entrance to the ego, a soul. The soul is the president of man's whole system and the intellect is the general manager or first deputy. Each God knocks. The intellect using the five senses gathers information and weighs carefully every proposition and all information so gathered. The intellect perceives the right of the ego and the ego calls in the person of the second deputy at which he knocks and is that which acts as an advisory counsel and lays all the information before him and says: "What is your advice?" Conscience examines it closely and carefully and says my advice is to leave this alone or to do this as the result of his examination and then ego calls in the will, the third deputy at which he knocks and is the superintendent of all his actions and for as and gives to him the judgments of intellect and will of conscience and says: "See here and see that this is left alone and that is done." There may be other deities at the door but these are not the deities. There are four deities at the door. There are four deities at the door. There are four deities at the door. There are four deities at the door.

Use Red Cross Bait

Here's Just the Thing

Let us suggest a bait which any one of which would prove a most desirable present.

BRUSHES For hair, radiator, floor, wall, as well as hair brushes, combs, tooth brushes, etc.

BASKETS—Artistic Japanese Baskets of many delightful patterns, Indian weaves in various shapes, German wicker work in lunch, wood market, auto, baskets and hamper.

ALUMINUM WARE—Any piece of our beautiful "Swissal" would be appreciated by any housewife.

FANCY BOXES For Candy, candied fruit, nuts, or they make dandy boxes for handkerchiefs, neckties, or other light gifts.
